1. Hark! there comes a - cross the bil-lows
2. Who can tell the tale of an-guish?
3. Ma - ny clasped their best and dear - est
4. Oh, we thank the God of hea - ven

News that makes our pul - - - ses bound - Words for which we had been list - 'ning
Of the dear two him - - - died days? Though they watch'd the sick ones lan - guish Close - ly to their ach - - - ing breast, Could not help them nor re - lieve them,
That He heard our ear - - - nest prayer, That the an - swer has been giv - en cres. alligretto.

Till our hearts ached for the sound; But the band of no - ble he - - roes Long be -
Not a mur - m'ring word they raise; Tho' the shells were burst - ing round them, Tho' they Laid them to e - ver - nal rest; How they lis - tened for the tid - - ings, Watch'd and That He sent them strength to bear; Thank - ful hearts all swell the cho - - rus, Na - tions sieged are once more free, pined for lack of food;

 wait-ed for re-lief, shout, "They're free, they're free,"

Round the world the news is flash-ing, Gamut, and hol-low-eyed and fam-ish-ed,
 Nev-er thought of a sur-ren-der,
 Ring the joy-bells, light the bon-fires,

So we'll sing the brave-ly they the Nev-er yield-ed
 And we'll sing the

vic-to-ry,
 foe with-stood,
 to their grief,
 vic-to-ry.

So we'll shout, shout, shout, and we'll sing, sing, sing, All hon-our to the he-roes of Ma-jest-y! And it's hip, hip, hip, hur-rah! And it's hip, hip, hip, hur-rah! Hur-rah! for the he-roes of Ma-jest-y.
