Swinging March Style.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked f. The piano part features a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and moving lines in both hands. The voice part enters with the lyrics: "We've had lots of things to do in the Ev - - - ery smiling mother's son will be". The piano accompaniment continues with a steady rhythm. The second system of music includes the lyrics: "great war where right meant do, night, We've cheered many a soldier's mother who was Giv - - - ing a hand to dear old mother and -". The piano part features a more active melody with triplets. The third system of music includes the lyrics: "waiting by the quiet fire - side, Dad and to sis - ter Sue, Now the clang of war is o'er, We want to And you'll hear us sing this song, As - we". The piano accompaniment provides a harmonic and rhythmic foundation for the vocal lines.
